

Everingham & Kerr, Inc.

Merger & Acquisition Advisors focused on the Lower Middle Market

Everingham & Kerr, Inc. is pleased to announce that Joseph A. Vanore, Jr.
has achieved the professional certification of Certified Business Intermediary (CBI).

Haddon Heights, NJ – 2007

Everingham & Kerr announces that Joseph A. Vanore, Jr., has achieved the prestigious professional certification of Certified Business Intermediary (CBI), a highly coveted designation and the recognized symbol of professionalism in the M&A industry. This designation is awarded by the M&A Source, a middle market professional association. Individuals who have been awarded this designation must take extensive educational courses, pass the required tests and continue ongoing education within the industry.

Mr. Vanore began his M&A career almost a decade ago on Wall Street with Salomon Smith Barney, after graduating Magna Cum Laude (ranking 18th in his class) from Georgetown University. At Salomon Smith Barney he participated in initial public offerings, mergers and acquisitions and private placements for various billion dollar Financial Institution, Internet, and Electronic Commerce clients.

Throughout his career, he has provided clients with a broad range of services in several areas including mergers and acquisitions, valuations, fairness opinions, leveraged buyouts, as well as the private placement of senior debt, subordinated debt and a variety of equity securities.

Mr. Vanore is an active member of various professional networking organizations and associations including the M&A Source, the National Association of Certified Valuation Analysts (NACVA) and other various business organizations/associations throughout the Delaware Valley.
