Mt. Laurel, NJ – July 22, 2016

Everingham & Kerr, Inc. announced today that CNA, Inc. (“CNA”) has been acquired by EN Engineering, a portfolio company of General Atlantic. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

CNA was founded in 1994 to primarily serve the land development community and housing industry with civil and site engineering, surveying, and land planning services. Headquartered in Forest Hill, Maryland, CNA has since expanded its capabilities to include the natural gas and electric utility markets in the mid-Atlantic and along the East Coast. The firm has over 100 employees at its three office locations in Maryland. For more information, please visit www.cnaengineers.com.

EN Engineering provides comprehensive and dependable engineering, consulting, design, integrity management, corrosion protection, and automation services to pipeline companies, utilities, and industrial customers. The company operates in key energy and manufacturing regions across the United States. General Atlantic, a global growth equity firm, became a majority investor in EN Engineering in July of 2015. For more information, please visit www.enengineering.com.

General Atlantic was founded in 1980 as a private investment firm to invest the funds of the Atlantic Philanthropies established by Charles Feeney. For more information, please visit www.generalatlantic.com.

Everingham & Kerr, Inc. initiated this transaction, acted as a financial advisor and assisted with negotiations for CNA.
