Mt. Laurel, NJ – May 31, 2013

Everingham & Kerr, Inc. (“E&K”) announced today that certain operating assets of Livewire Kiosk, Inc., including but not limited to the operations of Lift Passes & Beyond, Liftpasses.com and livewiretickets.com, (“LP&B”) have been acquired by Livewire Global, Inc (“Livewire”). Terms of the transaction are undisclosed.

LP&B is a network of off-mountain ski lift ticketing kiosks. Through proprietary software and product design these high tech kiosks sell and print direct-to-lift ski tickets. LP&B’s solutions are deployed to such popular National retailers as The Sports Authority, Wal-Mart and Albertson’s and have offered ticket sales to most major ski resorts. For more information about LP&B, please visit their website at www.liftpasses.com.

Livewire has acquired LP&B to take advantage of and expand upon the vast opportunities that exist within the proprietary technology and software platforms developed by Livewire Kiosk, Inc. within the ticketing kiosk, online, mobile app and advertising arenas. With over 18 years of experience in operating successful service, technology, financial and software organizations Livewire’s CEO, Barry L. Van Scoten, Jr., plans to integrate the assets into the multi-channel revenue generating approach of the corporation with rapid expansion coming through both organic growth and M&A strategies.
