PRESS RELEASE

for immediate release

February 16, 2015

Everingham & Kerr, Inc. is pleased to announce that

Walter J. Szymanski

has joined Everingham & Kerr

Mt. Laurel, NJ – February 16, 2015

Everingham & Kerr, Inc. (“E&K”) announced today that Walter J. Szymanski has joined the E&K team.

Prior to joining the firm, Mr. Szymanski worked for a Regional Investment Banking Firm where he was responsible for developing leads and maintaining client relationships, as well as contributing to the due diligence process for key assignments.

Mr. Szymanski has also 20 years of experience at his family’s architectural woodworking company in various roles. As CEO of the Company he oversaw all operational and financial activities including cost cutting measures, capital improvements and the purchase of a new, larger facility in 2003. Mr. Szymanski was also accountable for all sales, estimating and contract negotiations for the company. With over 50% of the company’s revenue coming from repeat clients, including some relationships spanning over 30 years, Mr. Szymanski has a strong background in customer relationship management.

His years of dealing with Unions, regulatory, environmental, payroll and insurance issues has given him a keen insight into the inner-workings today’s business owner face on a daily basis. The Company was sold in 2008 and Mr. Szymanski was an integral part in all facets of the sales process.
