Everingham & Kerr, Inc. announced today that National Service Alliance, Inc (the “Company” or “NSA”) has been acquired by a Private Company (the “Acquirer”). Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Headquartered in East Salt Lake City, UT, NSA offers a complete suite of warranty administration services, customer support/call center operations, parts warehousing, distribution, on-site repair services, regional repair depots, reverse logistics, service management, processing of returns, asset recovery, refurbishment, and end of life disposal services. The Company’s service model enhances the customer repair experience through a unique process that entitles the repair, triages the problem, determines which parts are required, checks part inventory levels, orders repair parts from the supplier, schedules the repair with the customer, and dispatches field service – all during the initial call with the customer. This efficiency is made possible through the NSA platform which electronically performs these functions.. To learn more about NSA please visit www. home.nationalservicealliance.com.

Everingham & Kerr acted as the exclusive financial advisor for NSA.
